REGISTER: Philip O'Brien Family Photographs

PG. NO.: 529

Processor: Regina Costello

Editor: Jane Avner, John J. Grabowski

Date: April 14, 2004

The Philip O'Brien Family originally came from county Galway, Ireland, and members of this family immigrated from Ireland to the United States from 1848 to 1897. O'Brien completed the family genealogy and traced his roots to the 1830s. For more information on these families, the researcher should consult the register to MS. 4918 Philip O'Brien Family Papers.

The Philip O'Brien Family Photographs, 1891-1999, consist of 26 black and white photographs.

This collection is arranged alphabetically by image content, then alphabetically by surname, and then chronologically.

This collection is of value to those seeking illustrative materials about the Irish community in northeast Ohio. There are images from four generations of this family. Those interested in tracing the roots of the Eagan, Egan, O'Brien, Flannery, Sommerly, Finnigan, Furey, Callaghan, Joyce and Boyle families with ties to County Galway, Ireland, will find this collection to be of value.

Provenance: Philip O'Brien, 2002.
