WESTERN RESERVE HISTORICAL SOCIETY LAUNCHES NEW WEBSITE

CLEVELAND, OH -- Western Reserve Historical Society launches its new website (www.wrhs.org) on Tuesday, November 22nd. This new site will enhance the virtual visitor experience with improved interactivity, ease of navigation, online ticketing and a customized event calendar. The website will be in a testing phase for the following twelve months with feedback requested from users. Improvements will continue to be added during the testing phase including digital access to the WRHS collections and virtual tours of WRHS facilities. Development of the website was funded by The George Gund Foundation. Designers were Chad Allan Consulting and Gryphon Media Group. To view the new site visit www.wrhs.org.

Founded in 1867, Western Reserve Historical Society is one of the largest privately-supported nonprofit regional historical societies in the nation. WRHS preserves and uses its collections, historic sites and museums to inspire people to explore the history and culture of Northeast Ohio and place that regional experience within the larger context of state, national and global history.

WRHS receives public support with local tax dollars from Cuyahoga Arts & Culture, to preserve and enrich our region's artistic and cultural heritage.
