High Holy Days Will Commence On Friday Night, October 2nd

The Penitential Period will be ushered in this year with the traditional Shichos (penitential) Services held on Saturday, September 26, at Midnight.

The service will be chanted by Cantor Nisenson of Cleveland and conducted by Rabbi Meyer. Special Prayer Books will be available, provided by the congregation, featuring responsive reading in both Hebrew and English. The Teen-age groups of our Temple will be our special guests at this service, inaugurating the penitential season in this inspiring service in worship to the Almighty.

Rabbi Meyer will be in charge of all High Holy Day Services, assisted by Dr. Morton Siegel of New York, Cantor Nisenson of Cleveland and Mr. Martin Cohen of Lorain. In response to the many inquiries received, the Temple Office wishes to announce the following policy pertaining to the Memorial List which is read at all Yizkor Services.

Rabbi’s Corner

This is the twelfth Rosh Hashana since the establishment of the State of Israel. It is most significant that in so short a time, Israel has become a symbol of rebirth for Jewish people everywhere, and the embodiment of a modern fulfillment of ancient prophecy and hope. In its participation in the Israel Bond drive, American Jewry has not only advanced the upbuilding of Israel,
but has shaped an inspiring instrument which strengthens its own vitality and unity.

The past year has witnessed many new
and decisive turning points in Israel’s record of progress. In many parts of the world, there has been a heightened appreciation of Israel’s constructive role. Among the newer nations in Asia and Africa, a community of interest and friendship has arisen with Israel, resulting in mutually advantageous economic and cultural relationships. Trade with these countries is receiving added impetus through the rapid development of Israel’s southern port of Eilath, reflecting the importance of Israel
Bond capital, which has had a singular impact on every facet of that community’s progress.

American Jewry can also share in the manifestations of achievement which have been brought to fruition
throughout Israel during the past year with the help of Israel Bond funds. In the reclamation of the Negev desert,
the curtain of the centuries is being rolled back, restoring vast areas of land to usefulness and productivity.
New arteries of communication and irrigation are pumping energy and lifeblood into this ancient area so that once again it offers the possibilities for sustaining large numbers of people,
many of them newcomers to Israel.

At this holy time of the year, we seek dedicated ourselves to a deeper awareness
of our sacred trust and our blessed responsibilities in the year ahead. As Americans and as Jews, we seek to reaffirm and
and the truths of our moral teachings. In our concern for the uninterrupted upbuilding of Israel and the welfare of its many thousands of immigrants, the year ahead
offers opportunities for renewed endeavor
in support of the Israel Bond drive.

Lewis Stein, son of Mrs. Mitchell Stein, has been named as Lorain agent for subscriptions to the "Carolina Israelite," the nationally-known journal of Harry Golden,

ested, please contact Lewis for information.
Trustees Okay High Holy Days Service Changes

Our Temple Board of Trustees, upon the recommendation of the teaching staff and the approval of the Board of Education, has approved certain innovations in our schedule of services for the High Holy Days.

Special teen-age services have been planned by the staff to encourage interest on the part of our teen-agers, and to give them services which are believed to be unique and specially planned to their particular age group and problems.

A dance, scheduled for Saturday evening, September 28, will inaugurate this program. Dancing will be held from 9 p.m. till 11:30 p.m. The groups and their guests will then attend the Slichos Services from Midnight till 1 a.m. A midnight snack will then be served by the P.T.O.

Erev Rosh Hashana, Friday evening, October 2, a special service will be conducted in the Temple proper at 8:30 p.m. In the place of the formal sermon, a discussion will be held on a problem pertaining to youth.

Other services scheduled will be held on the second day of Rosh Hashana, from 11:00 a.m. till 1 p.m., and Yom Kippur afternoon, from 2:30 p.m. to 4 p.m., in the Gymnasium. Again, instead of the formal sermon, discussions will be held. Teen-agers, who have tickets to adult services, will pay only for the dance.

Tickets for these services, including the cost of admission to the dance, can be purchased for $1.00 from youth leaders. Any youth, in the age brackets of 14-18, who do not belong to youth groups, may attend by purchasing a ticket from Miss Marge Siegel. The Silverman Prayer Book will be used at all services, which will be conducted by Dr. Siegel and Rabbi Meyer.

Sisterhood Plans
Succoth Square Dance, Oct. 31st

Stimulated by the gratifying response to their first meeting and Style Show, Sisterhood kept the ball rolling by announcing their first fund-raising function of this season. In keeping with the festive Sukkoth holiday, they are planning a Square dance to be held at the Temple, on Saturday night, October 31st. Mrs. Lloyd Bornstein, chairman, promises all the trimmings: caller, music, food . . . and high hopes for a very rewarding return from this event.

It was also noted by Mrs. Hy Lieberman, president, that work had been going on in the kitchen during the summer under the supervision of Mrs. Paul Meltzer and Mrs. Sam Berkowitz, preparing it for the coming busy season. A large cupboard for meeting supplies to accommodate a minimum of 200 was added, and two movable coffee bars built for the urns yet suitable for many other helps to their Kitchen and Catering committees.

'Red Carpet Service'
Set For Hadassah Donor

Plans are being formulated for a "Red Carpet Service" for all Hadassah donors, present at the annual Donor dinner, slated for December 8th, at the Temple. Proceeds from this Donor will be sent directly to Israel, to help towards the completion of the $25 million Hadassah-Hebrew University Medical Center—including the Hebrew University-Hadassah Medical School.

Mrs. S. Berkowitz, Donor chairman, stated that one of the Medical Center's major features is already being adopted by hospitals now under construction in various parts of the world. It is the "brilliantly conceived" radial hospital unit, whose service core will reduce the work load and staff of the institution. Nursing stations located in the heart of the radial unit, which is intended to house acutely-ill patients, will enable a concentration of medical treatment and nursing attention in closest proximity to the patient.

She said that six reservoirs—capable of holding a 50-day supply of water—are now being built to service the Medical Center, where water requirements will be about 40,000 gallons a day. These reservoirs will be of vital importance since Israel has almost no rain ten months out of the year. She pointed out that the very fact that Israel is a "water-poor country" impels its people to use water sparingly.

Water for the reservoirs will be secured from a water table below the Judean Hills toward Tel Aviv, as well as from wells and springs in the vicinity of Jerusalem. More than 500 workers are now speeding the completion of the final phases of construction of the Medical Center.

The skit, originally planned for the September meeting, will be presented at the Oct. 13th meeting at 8:30 p.m. at the Temple. We urge all members to attend this session.

There will also be convention reports by Mrs. Bernard Jacoby, president, and Miss Gert Levin, 1st vice president, who attended the Hadassah convention, held in St. Louis from Sept. 13-16. Former President Harry S. Truman and Mrs. Golda Meir were the principal speakers at the opening plenary session, at which time Hadassah's program for the United States and Israel was formulated.

Mrs. Reuben Sherman, Hadassah treasurer, wants to remind the members to please pay their dues for 1959-60 as soon as possible. Mrs. N. Sepsenwol urges all members to concentrate on sales tax collections since this is a painless source of revenue.

ANTI-BOYCOTT FIGHT AIRED AT JWW SESSION

Editor’s Note: The following is a report presented by PNC Abraham Kradiator, chairman of the Foreign Affairs committee, at the national Jewish War Veterans convention in New York City last month. We think this will be of interest to the Community:

You will recall that at the 63rd National Convention, held in Los Angeles, this Committee requested your cooperation in the distribution of a new pamphlet prepared by the Foreign Affairs Committee entitled “Smokescreen of Cowardice and Deceit.” This pamphlet told the story of how Brown and Williamson and its parent company, from the Foreign Affairs Committee entitled “Smokescreen of Cowardice and Deceit.” This pamphlet told the story of how Brown and Williamson and its parent company, British American Tobacco Company, had been cooperating with the Arab nations in refusing to sell its cigarette products to Israel.

As you remember, the Arab League nations started the boycott against Israel in 1949. Their goal was to destroy Israel economically. They then expanded their boycott tactics by using blackmail threats against any company that did business with Israel throughout the world. Finally, any company which was owned by Jews or which employed Jews was likewise placed under the Arab bans. Some queer things developed out of this policy. For example, the Arab nations refused to accept U.S. free surplus wheat, if the wheat was shipped in boats owned or controlled by Jews.

The spread of the Arab Boycott against Israel to Jews throughout the world, and particularly in the United States, led the National Jewish agencies in February 1956 to issue a pamphlet entitled “Bigotry and Blackmail,” which went into great detail documenting the sinister methods of the Arabs in carrying out their boycott tactics.

After that pamphlet was printed, JWW took the lead in negotiating with the Shell Oil Company to stop its tactics of refusing to sell oil to Israel.

During the National Convention in Boston in 1957, we were in the midst of those negotiations. Finally, the Shell Oil Company made a satisfactory settlement by selling its retail outlets in Israel and permitting the operation of the Haifa Refinery.

After this victory, we then tackled the American Express which closed its offices in Israel because of Arab pressures. The combined activities of the Jewish agencies in bringing concerted pressure on American Express forced them to resume their tourist operations in Israel.

The Brown and Williamson case differs which it manufactured in the United States. This pamphlet told the story of how Brown and Williamson were willing to sell its American brands — Viceroy, Kools and Gold Bond — to Israel, but not those brands which it manufactured in the United States and sold through British American overseas. We pointed out that this was a phony explanation, that since Brown and Williamson was wholly owned by British American, we couldn’t accept the story that there was any difference between Brown and Williamson and British American. Mr. X suggested that we praise Brown and Williamson for its willingness to sell the American brands to Israel. He assured us that Brown and Williamson would never be anti-Semitic. Since we heard so much in previous weeks on this same theme, we told Mr. X that we never asserted that Brown and Williamson was anti-Semitic. Their use of this statement was only another “smokescreen” which we saw through. We told him that the only way to solve the problem was to bring over Mr. Oppenheim, Chairman of the Board of British American.

At the same time that we were meeting with Mr. X, some wholesale distributors of tobacco products called on American Jewish Congress and B’nai B’rith leaders to discuss this subject. Their motive was simple. They hoped to divide the Jewish community by getting the American Jewish Congress and B’nai B’rith to oppose our position. However, the representatives of the American Jewish Congress and B’nai B’rith (Continued on Page 10)

He told us that he was not hired by Brown and Williamson but was called in by their counsel in New York to see whether he could mediate the dispute. He told us that British American had a cigarette factory in Egypt and was afraid it would lose the factory if they sold their cigarettes to Israel. Their motive was simple. They hoped to divide the Jewish community by getting the American Jewish Congress and B’nai B’rith to oppose our position. However, the representatives of the American Jewish Congress and B’nai B’rith (Continued on Page 10)
FIRST ARAB SONG BOOK ON PRESS FOR ISRAEL USE

The first book of songs in Arabic, designed to aid singing in Israel schools and army youth groups, is now on the press and will be available in September before schools reopen, it was announced here by the America-Israel Cultural Foundation, co-sponsors of the song book with the American-Israelpoetry and song. It will also include some translations of Hebrew songs. All of the songs included in the book will be printed in Arabic, with a transliteration in Hebrew and Latin letters, and a Hebrew translation.

The new book fills a void, as there were previously no collections of Arab songs in book form. This was a serious handicap to the program, sponsored by the American-Israel Cultural Foundation and the government, of stimulating musical programs among the Arab population.

Anti-Boycott Fight

Late in November, Mr. Oppenheim came to the United States and met with a delegation from the American Jewish community. He made no bones about understanding the true issue. He saw it as a matter of losing American dollars through our activity or losing pound sterlings in its trade with the Arab nations. He admitted trying to protect his property interests in Egypt. We warned him that he could never do business with Nasser, which he calmly rejected. His public relations coterie who were present prepared a statement to be issued by the Jewish organizations, which was, in effect, a whitewash of Brown and Williamson.

Immediately after that meeting, the heads of the Jewish organizations got together and issued their own statement on December 5, 1958. In this statement, the unity of the Jewish community was demonstrated in supporting the education campaign launched by J.W.V. against Brown and Williamson. Brown and Williamson officials were so irate at this last statement that the police are said to have received complaints from them.

In the August 1959, issue of Times Magazine, there is a report of increased sales by every major cigarette manufacturer in the United States except Brown and Williamson. Brown and Williamson officials were so irate at this last statement that they threatened to sue for libel. They were told politely that this challenge was gratefully accepted. They never carried out their threat.

The new book, designed to help in the integration of the Arab minorities in Israel, preserves the riches of Arab folklore. It will provide teachers and group leaders with the best in Arab poetry and song. It will also include some translations of Hebrew songs. All of the songs included in the book will be printed in Arabic, with a transliteration in Hebrew and Latin letters, and a Hebrew translation.

The new book fills a void, as there were previously no collections of Arab songs in book form. This was a serious handicap to the program, sponsored by the American-Israel Cultural Foundation and the government, of stimulating musical programs among the Arab population.

JOHANNESBURG

All but one of the Jewish farmers in an area of this country where pressed labor has been used, have released these laborers voluntarily, according to an announcement made in the Great Synagogue here by Chief Rabbi Louis I. Rabinowitz.

The fact that arrested natives have been impressed as farm laborers was brought out in a court action here recently. Rabbi Rabinowitz appealed to Jewish farmers in the district to release those involuntary laborers, declaring that use of such labor was "contrary to the ethics of Judaism."

THE HAGUE

The 250-year-old Ashkenazi synagogue in the former Amsterdam Ghetto, desecrated during World War II, will be restored with financial aid from the Dutch government.
