

Emil Schoenbrun Named Hebrew School Teacher

Mr. Emil Schoenbrun has been named by the Congregation as a teacher for the Hebrew School. The action followed a general Temple meeting this month.

Mr. Schoenbrun, a genial and likeable teacher with wide experience in Europe and Cleveland, will assume his duties with the opening of Hebrew School Classes in September. He has been teaching at the Heights Jewish Center in Cleveland for the past six years.

Born in Hungary, Mr. Schoenbrun completed his elementary education and went on to Budapest where he attended a college for Jewish teachers for six years. Upon completion of his formal education, he was assigned to a Jewish elementary school in Ushorvd, the same school in which he received his schooling as a child. After several years, Mr. Schoenbrun was made educational supervisor of the Talmud Torah and of a number of non-Jewish Schools in his district.

Following World War II, Mr. Schoenbrun came to this country and assumed his duties in Cleveland. His wife resides with him at 12320 Brackland Ave. His first wife and children lost their lives in a concentration camp in Europe.

To the Community, Mr. Schoenbrun wrote: "I trust I can become one of you and be a real help. Teaching has been my life work and ambition. I feel that my affiliation in Lorain is an opportunity and challenge. I hope that this will be the beginning of a sincere friendship and it is my hope that I can be of service to the Jewish Community of Lorain. I thank the Congregation for giving me this opportunity."

The Lorain Jewish Community welcomes wholeheartedly their new teacher in Hebrew School education and hopes for a long and fruitful career for Mr. Emil Schoenbrun and the children of educational system.

Israel's exports during the first four months of 1958 exceeded 72 million dollars as compared with 69 million dollars during the corresponding period in 1957.

Five Fight Over Ritual, Are Jailed

PETAH TIKVA — A heated dispute over which liturgy should be used at the Porat settlement synagogue on Shavuot led to a call to the police, who detained five of the congregants.

SEES 3 MILLION ISRAELIS

JERUSALEM — By conservative estimate, Israel will have a population of three million by 1970, Prof. R. Bachi, director of Israel's central bureau of statistics, told a press conference last month.

Israeli Prime Minister Ben-Gurion proclaimed 10 goals for Israel during its second decade. High on the list were (1) complete absorption of immigrants, (2) development and industrial use of atomic and solar use, and 3) the conquering of the Negev desert.
