

PRIVATE MURDER MYSTERY PACKAGE

Unravel secrets, uncover motives, and immerse yourself in thrilling historical mysteries with our exclusive murder mystery events! Perfect for corporate events, social clubs, or special gatherings.

Why Choose Our Experience?

Our murder mystery events are uniquely crafted by historians and blend historical fiction with real events from Cleveland's past. Hosted by the WRHS Cleveland History Center, the oldest cultural institution in Northeast Ohio, the region's largest American history research center - each story is meticulously researched to provide an authentic and thrilling experience. This package is available on location at the Cleveland History Center, or at an off-site location for an additional fee.

Basic Package Details:

Cost: $1,500 per group, if booked on a Thursday evening

Availability: Upon Request

Group Size: From 20-40 participants

Includes:

One (1) complimentary drink per guest

Charcuterie spread

Exclusive access to the historic Hay-McKinney Mansion

Full museum access before the event

Free on-site parking

Dedicated event staff to facilitate the experience

Choose Your Story:

Murder in the Limelight: A Show-Stopping Mystery

Travel back to 1924, where vaudeville's brightest stars light up the night, until a dark twist threatens to steal the show. Amidst dazzling performances and backstage rivalries, a sinister plot unfolds. Can you crack the case, or is it curtains for your character?

Murder at the Mayor's Mansion: A Suffrage-Era Mystery

Transport yourself to 1914 Cleveland, where Mayor Newton D. Baker hosts an elite gathering amidst the fervor of the women's suffrage movement. As rivalries simmer and scandalous whispers spread, a shocking crime is committed. Can you uncover the culprit before the night is over?

A Winter's Eve Murder Mystery

Set against the opulent backdrop of the Gilded Age in 1904, a family gathers for the reading of a mysterious will - only to be met with chilling secrets and hidden agendas. As suspicions rise and motives unravel, guests must work together to expose the truth before it's too late.

